The Australian Brahmoosin Cattle School will be held on the 13th to 16th February 2014.

The Australian Brahmoosin Cattle School is an annual event held in Wondai each February and teaches anyone at any age or experience the in and outs of Cattle showing, cattle work and cattle care, to ensure that they are the best cattlemen and cattlewomen for the future. The 2014 Cattle School will be the 10th Annual Cattle School Event.

The cattle school is a fully catered course over the weekend for anyone to learn in the area of cattle showing. The Weekend consist of many competitions, lectures, presentations, games, and hands on fun whilst learning from the Pros of the industry. Some of the activities include branding, ear tagging, nutrition of animals, preparation of show animals, selection of livestock, castration, dehorning, showing and Judging of Cattle at industry and show standards.

The cattle school is a fantastic opportunity for your students to learn valuable skills and knowledge in animal husbandry, agriculture, public speaking and team building.

The Brahmoosin Cattle School is very affordable to all students being only $80 (17u). The event is a fully secured event, with teachers more than welcome to become participants or stay the weekend as non participants to oversee students.

The proposed program will include both oral and practical sessions by experienced cattle people covering the following areas:

- General selection of cattle for showing, feeding on and breeding
- Breaking in, training and handling of cattle for showing
- Animal Preparation/ Showing and show gear
- Animal husbandry and health/ Veterinary Care
- Beef Market requirements
- Parading/ Feeding and Grooming
- Public speaking

As well as individual competitions over the weekend, there is also a schools competition with many great prizes up for grabs for school agricultural departments.

We are looking for schools to nominate students for the 2014 Cattle school, with limited place nominations need to be in quick.

Further information and nomination forms for students are available at Good Shepherd Lutheran College’s Career Office.
