2. ACU Change of Preference Event

Make the Right Choice

The final year of high school is a challenging one, and as you know, not all students achieve the results they had hoped for. The good news is that now, more than ever, there are a number of options available to school leavers, particularly at ACU.

Our change of preference event, ACU Make the Right Choice, is a valuable opportunity for students to explore their study options, speak to academic and admissions experts and investigate pathway programs following the release of OPs on Saturday 19th December, and prior to the final change of preference date on Wednesday 6th January, and the QTAC major offer round on Thursday 14th January. There will also be refreshments and student led campus tours available throughout the afternoon.

ACU Make the Right Choice will be held at our Brisbane campus on Monday 21st December, from 3.30 to 6.00pm. Students are able to register to attend online, or simply turn up on the day.

15. Junior Positions Available
Noosaville and Cooroy Libraries

For students aged from 15 years to work for two hours after school between 4-6pm. Depending how many we employ, will determine how many days a week each junior work. Regular after-school commitments are required. Students can be in Year 10, 11 or 12 in 2016.

The position requires the student to place items back on the shelves so good literacy and numeracy skills are essential.

The pay rates are from $17.02 for an under 17 years, and slightly higher per year older, up to approx. $21 per hour for under 19 years.

We are looking to meet prospective applicants (not a full interview) in the next two weeks, and successful applicants are likely to start in the school holidays, but we are flexible on this, and can work around family/study requirements as needed.

We will be accepting resumes until 4th December, by email, post or in person.
