

GOOD SHEPHERD
LUTHERAN COLLEGE NOOSA

Noosa Today—Thursday 21 November

NOOSA'S INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

NOOSA TODAY

LOCALLY OWNED, PRODUCED & PUBLISHED

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 21, 2013

ISSUE EIGHTY TWO

SPREAD SOME Christmas Cheer WITH NOOSA TODAY

Christmas is just weeks away. The shops are full of festive treats and decorations, gifts are being bought and menus planned for the big day.

Christmas is a time for families to come together and celebrate.

But it isn't a time of joy for everyone.

Over 4000 report that as increasing number of local families are doing it tough and will struggle to buy food, let alone gifts for the kids, this year.

So we are appealing to Noosa Today readers and advertisers to help us make a difference this Christmas.

The Noosa Today Christmas Cheer Campaign will see at least 20 local families celebrate a real Christmas this year.

See more on page 2

Good Shepherd Lutheran College
StuWMS Lillian Sinclair, 6, Merrin Bartholomaeus, 6, Lene Pringle, 8, and Jarvis Shelton, 9, have been busy decorating boxes for Noosa Today.

NEWS 5

RIGHT ON!

GOOD ON the person who found a trash on the beach and handed it to. Honesty really is the best policy.

LOVE YOUR WORK: Thanks to the local businesses and citizens already contributing to the Noosa Today Christmas Cheer Campaign. See pages 1 and 2 to get involved.

NICE ONE: The Surfriders Association is planning another massive rubbish cleanup at Noosa North Shore, in conjunction with Noosa council elect - Joe Jurekovic.

WRITE OFF!

DO THE RIGHT THING: When you need to empty your car of cigarette butts, takeaway boxes and drink cans, put it in the bin, not on the roadside.

HAVE YOUR SAY: Have your say! Malicious or defamatory submissions will not be accepted. Written or typed submissions only will be accepted. Written must include a name, signature and daytime phone number. Contributions over the telephone will not be accepted. Contributions will not be identified. Noosa Today reserves the right to edit submissions. Email your letter to righton@localbusinessnetwork.com.au or post to 36 May Street, Noosaville or bring it in to our office.